

October 29, 2007

SOLEIL SELECTS FIRST COVERAGE

Independent equities research provider Soleil Securities Group has joined coverage optimization platform provider First Coverage's trade idea distribution network as a sell-side participant, vendor officials announced today, Oct. 29. The First Coverage platform provides portfolio managers, fund managers and other buy-side investment professionals with a Web application that allows them to evaluate, according to their own custom criteria, every current and potential relationship they maintain with the sell side.